TIMELESS RHYTHM

Originally opened in 1927, Fenway Hotel is an icon of the jazz age, playing host to notable explorers, artists, politicians, musicians and living legends in its time as an operating hotel. Considered the “most historically valuable structure” in Dunedin, Florida, the hotel was also home to the first radio station in Pinellas County, which began broadcasting in 1925. Today, the Fenway Hotel is a Mainsail Lodging & Development project in collaboration with the Taoist Tai Chi Society of the USA, and a member of the prestigious Autograph Collection® of Marriott International, Inc. (NYSE: MAR)

Fenway is a place humming with soul, where songs of the last century echo with every footstep through the halls. Here, guests and locals come together to dance the night away. It is a place where touches of the past blend harmoniously with each hand-selected element of the new modern setting – from repurposed jazz instruments in the vibrant lobby to portable turntables and jazz-inspired artwork in guest rooms.

MODERN SPIRIT

HEW Parlor & Chophouse – This onsite restaurant takes its name from the word “hew,” meaning to cut or chop, and the initials of Fenway Hotel’s original architect, Herman Everett Wendell. Guests can enjoy an intimate parlor bar, showcasing an extensive whisky and Scotch collection inspired by Dunedin’s Scottish heritage, chophouse cuts and chef-driven seasonal preparations. Taking center stage is a chef’s dining bar, affording front seat views of the hustle and bustle of a production kitchen. The interaction with the culinary team will make this the most sought-after ticket. Design cues evoke a masculine setting in a contemporary interpretation of a traditional chophouse. Guests will also have the option to dine alfresco at poolside.

Hi-Fi Rooftop Bar – Inspired by the surrounding Spanish colonial architecture, Hi-Fi Rooftop Bar will be a gathering place for visitors and locals alike to enjoy breathtaking views over St. Joseph Sound, while savoring creatively constructed cocktails, local craft beers and carefully selected wines.
